

LAPLAND WINTER ADVENTURE TOUR

Travel to learn Polar survival techniques and practice exciting Arctic sports

Lapland trip for adventure and nature lovers. You will stay in the area of Pyhä-Luosto National Park, the oldest National Park of Lapland, which is located over 100 kilometers north of the Arctic Circle.

During the trip, you will climb a spectacular frozen waterfall using ice axes and crampons and you will make a route to explore the snowy Arctic forest, using the techniques of cross-country skiing and snowshoeing.

In addition you will cycle with "fat bikes", which are mountain bikes adapted to snow. You will learn Polar survival techniques, by the hand of an expert, as well as build a quinzee, where you will spend the night.

Snowmobiling routes, ice karting and many other activities are awaiting for, you in a place where the magic of the Northern Lights will astonish you with an amazing lights' show.
